

SXSW LONDON 1-6 JUNE 2026

BEYOND THE CAMPUS

BEYOND THE CAMPUS

BEYOND THE CAMPUS

BEYOND THE CAMPUS

BEYOND THE CAMPUS

BEYOND THE CAMPUS

SHAPE
THE FUTURE
IN PERSON.

BEYOND THE FESTIVAL CAMPUS

Shoreditch is one of London's most distinctive neighbourhoods. It is famous for its food, history and street art, don't forget to look around occasionally and build in time to explore some of the area's offerings.

Food on campus - Explore the festival campus through its diverse food and drink offerings with this handy map. From vibrant bars and sit-down restaurants to quick bites on the go, discover a curated selection designed to fuel every moment of your festival experience.

History food map - Explore Shoreditch through its flavours and stories with our curated food history map. This guide highlights a mix of restaurants, bars, and quick eats that capture the area's rich cultural evolution - from traditional spots to modern icons. Along the way, discover locations tied to Shoreditch's creative legacy, from film shoots and music-making to the rise of its vibrant tech scene, where startups and innovation have helped shape the neighbourhood we know today - offering a unique taste of Shoreditch's past and present in every stop.

Montacute Yards:

Official SXSW London partner Fora, opens up its premium workspaces across the festival week - it's a great place (with Wifi) for urgent emails, meetings and networking over coffee.

Montacute Yards opens its doors and transforms into a buzzing marketplace and workspace with food, music and events

- Daily food market & bar from lunchtime until evening
- Outdoor seating & wifi
- Live DJ sets across the week

*New for 2026* Bangla House @ Brick Lane

Curated by the Mubarak Ali Foundation, Durjoy Bangladesh Foundation, and British Bangladeshi Power & Influence. Visit Bangla House as it takes over Brick Lane for SXSW London 2026. Listen to conversations on Investment, AI and Bangladesh's future. Get a taste of Bangladeshi culture and food, with MasterChef UK's Ismail Hossain and catch a performance by acclaimed British Bangladeshi jazz pianist Zoe Rahman.

Day One: Trade & Entrepreneurship

High-level discussion on Bangladesh's economic future with leading investors, founders, and policymakers, plus live music from heritage artists.

Day Two: Culture & Identity

Talks on storytelling, fashion, food, and migration, featuring acclaimed journalists, chefs, authors, and a live jazz performance.

Day Three: Futures & AI

Conversations on AI, healthtech and global systems with innovators, cultural leaders, and international voices.

Spitalfields Market: Responsible Tech x Fashion District Takeover (2 June)

Visit Spitalfields Market for one of the festival's biggest open community nights. Network and connect with policy leaders, engineers, creatives, founders, and community builders. Stay for the Fashion District Live Performance Showcase with emerging London-based designers, the Alexander Whitley Dance Company, house and techno tunes from DJ Mr. Redley.

17:00–19:00 | All Tech is Human Community Mixer

Networking event bringing together industry leaders who are shaping a more human-centred tech future.

20:00–21:00 | Fashion District Live Showcase

A dynamic, creative showcase of fashion, immersive performance and cutting-edge cultural programming, with emerging designers and creative talent.

SXSW London Eats: Your Local Food Passport

Explore Shoreditch and SXSW London, choose from 200+ local food and drink spots, with exclusive delegate discounts across East London.

You'll receive a discount in any food kiosk that has a SXSW London flyer, with your delegate pass.

Get more for less at restaurants and cafes across Brick Lane, Spitalfields, and Redchurch Street. Show your SXSW London delegate pass at any of these food places to receive a 10% discount (or more)!

